Mr. Scott presented the petition of James A. Coates and twenty-two other citizens of Baltimore city for a law authorizing the prosecution of their business as confectioners on Sunday.

Mr. Scott offered the following order:

Ordered, That the committee to which was referred the petition of James A. Coates and others, report a bill to alter and amend section 178 of article XXX, of the Code of General Laws, so as to permit the sale of confectionary, fruit and segars on Sunday, in the city of Baltimore.

Which was read,

And the question being upon the adoption of the same,

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follow:
